About This Game

XOXO Droplets is a free-to-play dating sim. There's an optional paid DLC that increases the amount of dateable guys and adds a few neat extra features. The DLC is available in a bundle with our other project, A Foretold Affair, for a discount! GB Patch Bundle

Story:

The story begins when our nameable protagonist finally transfers into the boarding school of her dreams at the start of her junior year in high school. It would be perfect if it wasn't for that little catch attached to her enrollment: her parents will only let her keep attending the school for her remaining two years if she doesn't make everyone there hate her by shunning them, like she always does.

Do your best to show just enough interest in the other losers around to appease the folks while still having time to chase after all the attractive guys in the MC's afterschool group, which just so happens to be a group for chronically unfrienable people.

No, seriously folks. When we say the protagonist and main love interests are a big ol' jerk squad it's not a mistake and it's not an understatement.

Features:

- 3 distinct jerky main boyfriend options: Everett Gray, Nate Lawson, and Shiloh Fields
 - 6 side characters who'll be your buddies and 6 minor clique boyfriend options, each with a bonus effect that makes the game easier
 - Partial Voice acting for every significant character by a talented cast
 - The option to break up with your bf and start dating someone else, if you feel like it
 - A variety of methods to manage your Reputation with the unimportant students
 - Part-time jobs, stores to visit, useful items, optional mini-games, an in-game phone to call a guy up and arrange a date at one of several different locations
 - Over 132,00 words. Hundreds of different events, including a collage-style ending system where you get events for every goal you achieved during the game
 - Cheat codes for those who don't give a f*ck about gameplay and just wanna see the events

Akane is great! I really dig the aesthetic and the fast paced game play. Highly recommend.. Game is incomplete. No save, quit or load buttons. No directions or options information. Must start from beginning every time you play the game.. This game has a neat artstyle. Fun, short game (only took me 5 hours to beat) but the control are hard to learn. I would recommend it as it is a fun arcade game with an alright story that is interesting.. So, you are put in large abstract halls. You create a platform with left click and a bouncy platform with right click. You collect red orbs and press big red buttons. Once you press all the red buttons, the portal opens to the next hall.

Once you work out the physics, controls and know what you're looking for, this is great fun and you will be bouncing all over the place.

That said, this game is not without its issues. First - controls. It is set up ZASD. This stumps some people immediately. When you launch the game, you get a launcher, go into input and change to your preferred keys there. But this is a needlessly complicated and unintuitive way of doing this. Second, when I got to hall 5, I started glitching through my platforms on a consistent basis and immediately dying which made it impossible to continue. However by then I had collected nearly 30 of the 50 orbs, so there wasn't much game left anyway and this I achieved in 20 minutes.

For four levels, this was great fun, but it has ended up as wasted potential. A game ruining bug, unintuitive options set up and a very short overall experience ruins something that is pretty decent and fun when it is playable. If you get it, get it on sale.. So frustrated i swallowed my tongue! :p great and simple idea!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OVeC4Pwa9U>. Great game tons of potential download it now you will thank me later.

Short, but very well made. The only small annoyance I encountered was that when trying to press the in-game index finger on the wristwatch, my Vive controller "halo" hits the other Vive controller, so I had to hold them in an awkward way to make that work.. Everybody singing:

"I have Stunts, I have Flatout

Uh! Crashday!". It's a good game, the graphics may not be exceptional and fighting are not binding, but there are some great puzzles, especially in the final levels. In addition, the boss fights are fun.. I hope this wil become just as great as Stardrive one of my favourite games. This was my favorite game by Humongous back in the day, and I played quite a few (with the exception of the Spy Fox series, much to my regret). If you like point-and-click adventure games, have a kid between the aget of 3 and 8 (although some kids might want to play this all hte way up to 10 or maybe 12), or have played this game in your childhood, you NEED this game.. loved every minute of it! the only cons are, the movement is way too slow. you have to practially hold shift to get anywhere, and the stairs are very glitchy, and there are way too many repeating hallways. other than that, i really loved this game :)
